

Jean-Philippe Perreault

Jean-Philippe Perreault, sociologist of religions, is professor at the Faculty of theology and religious sciences at Laval University where he holds the Chair on Youth and Religions (www. Jeunesreligions.org). His works aim at understanding religious phenomena resulting from diverse sociocultural contemporary contexts as well as understanding society and culture from a sociological perspective on religions.

His research and teaching mainly focus on the articulations between youth and the (re)configurations of contemporary religions, through medias, large gatherings or personal itineraries for example. His interests also concern spirituality, ethics and religious culture in the field of education.
